

Keshav Mahavidyalaya

University of Delhi

NOTICE

KEB Hana Bank, an established Bank of South Korea, has planned to provide some partial support grant to DU students who come from weaker sections of the society such as EWS, differently abled, and displaced people. This is one-time support ranging from Rs 35,000 to 40,000. The recipients must fulfil that:

1. they have not received any scholarship of any nature before.
2. they have excelled in the academic performance in their previous year (both semesters included).

The needy II and III year students may fill the attached application form as per criteria laid in the selection criteria attachment. The filled application form together with supporting documents (specified in selection criteria) may be forwarded as pdf files to kebh@keshav.du.ac.in latest by 18/11/2021.

The following committee members shall scrutinise the application and forward the three most appropriate names as per their recommendations keeping in mind the selection criteria:

1. Dr Roli Bansal- Convener Student Aid Fund committee- Convener
2. Mr Praveen- Advisor Student Union- Member
3. Dr Deepak Srivastava- Convener, Equal Opportunity Cell-Member

Last date to receive the applications will be 18th November, 2021.

(PRINCIPAL)